Sydney

It's easy to see why this stunning, cosmopolitan city won the hearts of many as the host of the 2000 Olympic Games. Enjoy a bird's-eye view of the city from the observation deck of Sydney Tower. At 1,063 feet, it's the second-tallest building south of the Equator! See the skyline from a different angle on your boat tour of Sydney Harbour—and snap a picture of the iconic Opera House. Stop at Bondi Beach to get up-close to koalas and kangaroos at Sydney Wildlife World. Then, shop for souvenirs in the historic Rocks district. Situated in the shadow of the Sydney Harbour Bridge, this well-preserved colonial neighborhood marks the spot where Australia's first fleet of European settlers landed in 1788.

Rotorua

Geothermal activity and Maori culture have made Rotorua into a major travel destination. Hop on board an amphibious duck boat for a tour of Rotorua's historic landmarks and natural wonders. A Maori guide leads you through the geothermal Whakarewarewa area, where you can marvel at bubbling pools of mud, crystal springs of hot mineral water, geysers and richly colored craters. At the Maori Village, you'll hear about Maori legends and tribal customs. Later, enjoy Maori song and dance at a traditional Hangi dinner. And did you know that New Zealand is home to over 55 million sheep? Learn more during a sheep-shearing demonstration at the world-famous Agrodome. Then, cap off your visit with a ride on the Skyline Gondola.

Fraser Island

Hop aboard a ferry to Fraser Island, stepping stone to the Great Barrier Reef. Named after Eliza Fraser, the lone survivor of a shipwrecked party held captive by Aborigines in 1836, this is the world's largest sand island. A naturalist's paradise, the island includes beaches, dunes, streams and marshes. Be on the lookout for native wildlife, including wild horses, known here as "brumbies." You'll stay at the beautiful Kingfisher Bay Resort, which has been carefully designed to coexist with the island's ecological systems. Energy conservation, waste minimization and composting are integral to the hotel's philosophy. What's that colorful bird on the veranda? Or that exotic-looking flower alongside the path to your room? Ask one of the on-site rangers!
